

The first step to competing and studying at an American university is to know your possibilities!

Our students take advantage of the American educational system, obtaining their university degree, which along with the learned English language, are the keys to be successful in their future.

We offer you different personalized services that will suit you, depending on whether you choose to study through sports scholarships or other university studies!

TOEFL, SAT & GED PREP

Know your american college admission tests!

College entrance exams are used by admissions counselors to evaluate applicants from different high schools and locations.

Some colleges require a minimum test score that applicants must have earned from an entrance exam in order to be admissible. Other schools look at the applicant holistically and utilize test scores as just one piece of the whole picture in making the admissions decision.

At SC Language we have native teachers highly specialized in teaching classes for the preparation of the TOEFL, SAT and GED exams.

ACE your college admission tests by preparing with us!

US universities grant thousands of dollars in athletic scholarships that can cover up to 100% of your studies.

The more information you have about the steps you have to take to get your scholarship, the greater your chances.

We offer you:

Courses + Tests practice + Coaching

TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language)

What is the TOEFL?

TOEFL test provides a standardized way to measure the English skills of non-native speakers prior to enrolling in English-based colleges or other educational programs.

Why take the TOEFL?

The TOEFL exam is required by almost every school for foreign students who want to study any subject in the US. While there are many requirements for international students to study in the US, the TOEFL is one of the most important.

The TOEFL exam is necessary in academic setting to be sure students can get by in an English-speaking environment.

SAT (Scholastic Aptitude Test)

What is the SAT?

The SAT is an entrance exam used by most colleges and universities to make admissions decisions. It is a multiple-choice, pencil-and-paper test created and administered by the College Board.

The purpose of the SAT is to measure a high school student's readiness for college, and provide colleges with one common data point that can be used to compare all applicants.

Why take the SAT?

One of the most significant reasons is how the test affects your college options; If you're applying to college, you will almost certainly need to submit SAT scores.

 The first section is called Evidence-Based Reading and Writing, and it is comprised of two tests: The Reading test and the Writing and Language test. The second part of the SAT is the Math test, which has two portions: The Math Test—Calculator and the Math Test—No Calculator.*

GED (Graduate Equivalency Degree or General Educational Diploma)

What is the GED?

The GED is a credential that can take the place of a high school diploma, allowing a student who did not complete high school to apply to college.

A GED is earned by passing the GED test, which covers four subject areas: Mathematical Reasoning, Reasoning Through Language Arts, Social Studies, and Science.

Why take the GED?

If you don't have a traditional high school diploma, you can still earn an equivalent credential by getting your GED

Getting your GED offers a chance at a better future. With a little preparation and effort, you'll have the certification you need to get a higher paying job and an opportunity to further your education.

WE GOT YOU COVERED!

Pick the test that will best suit your case or be prepared to go all-in with our
3-TEST PACKAGE PREP
(TOEFL + SAT + GED)
and excel your college applications!

BOOK YOUR TEST PREP!

administracion@sclanguage.com

916-030203

Avda. de Atenas, 73 – 28232
Las Rozas (Madrid)

www.sclanguage.com

